

Far Be It From Me

Far be it from me, and absurd
To believe everything I've heard
Far be it from me to be lured
Into falling in love with your words
Far be it from me, indeed

Far be it from me to unwind
Like a clock running out of time
Far be it from me by design
To be falling apart one more time
Far be it from me, indeed

It's never too late
To lose, or to win
Even broken hearts
Grow together again
