

LATE BLOOMER

Late bloomer, just a rumor
Never had the confidence to do it sooner
But it's all right now, it's all right now
It's never too late to be a late bloomer
When you're late, you're right on time

Late bloomer, baby boomer
Always wanted just to be a crooner
But it's all right now, it's all right now
It's never too late to be a late bloomer
When you're late, you're right on time

Rather bloom late than never at all
Or bloom too soon into a frosty Fall

Late bloomer, still a rumor
Never had the confidence to do it sooner
But it's all right now, it's all right now
It's never too late to be a late bloomer
When you're late, you're right on time
