

Solitaire

King needs a Queen
But the Queen wants a Jack
Uncover an ace
Begin a new stack
With the deuce and the three
That lead to the ten
And cards with the faces
That remind you of friends

Solitaire
A table and chair
A game without partners
When there's nobody there
Solitaire
It kills some time
Brings on the memories
Of the days you were mine

Playing alone, one
Story above the street
No one around
To see if I cheat
One-eyed Jack
Did he turn out to be true
I trun over a Queen
Thinking of you

The battle worn King of diamonds
Lost his eye and put down his blade
He's in love with the Queen of Heartstrings
But he lost her to the Jack of Spades

King needs a Queen
But the Queen wants a Jack
Uncover an ace
Begin a new stack
With the deuce and the three
That lead to the ten
And cards with the faces
That remind you of friends

Solitaire
A table and chair
A game without partners
When there's nobody there
Solitaire
It kills some time
Brings on the memories
Of the days you were mine
